Our Why

“People don’t care how much you know, until they know how much you care.”

We believe . . . that in a world that is constantly changing in complexity, continuing to grow in demands and expectations, and where ‘disconnect’ is becoming more prevalent, the same thread of humanness continues to run through each of us: The need and drive to be curious, learn, connect with others, understand and be understood, feel valued among peers, trust one another, take risks, challenge ourselves, live and work with purpose, and achieve. These qualitative experiences may be difficult to measure, but are essential in creating positive impact on personal motivation, growth, happiness, and overall performance and success in all areas of life. We believe that these are the most important qualities and values for both individuals and teams, and thus for business and humanity as a whole. At Pinnacle Pursuits, we dedicate our work and focus to the design and delivery of such experiences.

We hope you will join us in this meaningful pursuit of learning, leadership, team-work and business.

They truly listened to our needs and were able to customize our event to fit our specific vision . . . Moments from the event are still referenced by the team on a daily basis. Highly recommended!”

Dave Taylor, Leadership Development & Events Lead, Lululemon Athletica

“Thanks for an incredible retreat! It was amazing to see my team from 11 offices spread over thousands of kilometers come together and be so engaged as a group . . . Our goals of empowering the team to step out of their comfort zones were met and then some! Many thanks for a great experience!”
